

"This work is protected under the copyright laws of the United States. No reproduction, use, or disclosure of this work shall be permitted without the prior express written authorization of the copyright owner. Copyright © 1996 by LAWCHEK, LTD."

MUST SCHOOL EMPLOYEES REPORT CHILD ABUSE?

In Colorado, any public or private school official or employee who has reasonable cause to know or suspect that a child has been abused or neglected shall immediately report or cause a report to be made to the County Welfare Department or local law enforcement agency. Persons who violate this provision are subject to damages proximately caused by failure to report.

Colo. Rev. Stat. §19-3-304

This is not a substitute for legal advice. An attorney must be consulted.